

Minimally Invasive Shoulder Resurfacing/Replacement Under Development

- Dr. Chudik developed, published anatomic studies and patented an alternative to traditional total shoulder replacement that spares injury to the rotator cuff and bone. Being performed in Europe on a limited basis.

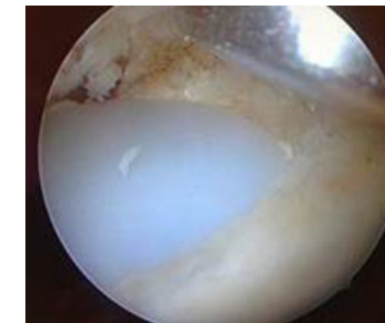

Postoperative X-ray of a minimally invasive humeral head (shoulder ball) resurfacing

Dr. Chudik's patents for minimally invasive shoulder resurfacing and replacement

STEVEN CHUDIK MD
SHOULDER, KNEE & SPORTS MEDICINE

Arthroscopic photos of replacing the glenoid (shoulder socket) surface