

Minimally Invasive Shoulder Resurfacing/Replacement Under Development

- Dr. Chudik developed, published anatomic studies and patented an alternative to traditional total shoulder replacement that spares injury to the rotator cuff and bone. Being performed in Europe on a limited basis.

Postoperative X-ray of a minimally invasive humeral head (shoulder ball) resurfacing

Dr. Chudik's patents for minimally invasive shoulder resurfacing and replacement

Arthroscopic photos of replacing the glenoid (shoulder socket) surface

STEVEN CHUDIK MD
SHOULDER, KNEE & SPORTS MEDICINE